IN RE SSA BONDS ANTITRUST LITIGATION

ORDER

16 Civ. 3711 (ER)

THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO:

ALL ACTIONS

Ramos, D.J.:

On August 22, 2016, the Court so-ordered a stipulation consolidating nine related actions alleging a conspiracy by certain defendants to manipulate the prices of sub-sovereign, supranational, and agency (“SSA”) bonds (the “August 22, 2016 Order”). Pursuant to the August 22, 2016 Order, the nine individual actions were consolidated under the caption, “In re SSA Bonds Antitrust Litigation,” and case number, 16 Civ. 3711 (the “Lead Action”). The Order also specified that “[a]ny additional complaint filed in this district containing substantially similar allegations as those in the [Lead Action] that is marked as related to the [Lead Action] and accepted by the Court as such . . . shall also be consolidated with the cases comprising the [Lead Action].”¹

Subsequently, on December 6, 2016, the City of Riviera Beach Police Officers’ Pension Fund filed a Complaint under case number 16 Civ. 9398 (the “City of Riviera Beach Action”), along with a Statement of Relatedness to the Lead Action. On December 8, 2016, the City of Riviera Beach Action was accepted as related to the Lead Action, and the City of Riviera Beach Action was reassigned to the undersigned.

¹ On October 24, 2016, a related case filed by the Louisiana Municipal Police Employees Retirement System, 16 Civ. 7991, was consolidated with the Lead Action. On November 14, 2016, a related case filed by KBC Asset Management NV, 16 Civ. 8621, was consolidated with the Lead Action.

Pursuant to the August 22, 2016 Order, the City of Riviera Beach Action and the Lead Action are consolidated. All future filings in this case shall be filed in the Lead Action and bear the same caption as that case number.

It is SO ORDERED.
